| | | | | Heslop wrote the following about his Craters of the Moon Park Crater of the Moon National Monument, south of Arco, Idaho, was in the beginning stages when my wife Fae, and I visited the park. Roads were not paved, cabins and office were rustic. The camp laundry was outside, visitors made the best of conditions in log cabins and wood burning stoves. However, the volcanic nature of the park was interesting, even beautiful. 1947. | | | | | |
