REQUEST TO PHOTOCOPY THESIS

The Harold B. Lee Library (“HBLL”) and Brigham Young University (“BYU”) respect copyright law and expect all patrons to do the same. Unauthorized copying, distribution, modification, public display or public performance of copyrighted works is an infringement of the copyright owner’s rights. Requesting patrons (“Patron”) are ultimately responsible for determining copyright restrictions, for obtaining written permission, and for paying any fees necessary for the copying, reproduction, distribution, or proposed use of the materials.

You have asked the HBLL to make a copy for you of the material identified below (the "Material"). The HBLL and BYU will not copy Material which it knows or reasonably suspects is covered by the copyright of a third party and for which you do not have permission to copy or the copying of which is not fair use.

In this regard, you, the undersigned, represent and warrant to the HBLL and BYU that you are at least 18 years of age and at least one of the following is true:

- you are a teacher or student (or parent or guardian of a student) and are requesting copies of the Material for educational purposes in a not-for-profit educational institution and that you, on the basis of a reasonable investigation, have determined that another copy cannot be obtained at a fair price; OR
- you own the copyright in the material; OR
- you have been authorized as the agent of the owner of the copyright in the Material to have the Material copied; OR
- you have been granted a license by the owner of the copyright in the Material to copy the Material; OR
- the copies of the Material have been or are intended to be filed with a public agency for the purpose of informational disclosure or are intended to be part of the public record in a court proceeding; OR
- the Material is in the public domain.

The HBLL and BYU will not be held responsible for any direct, indirect, consequential, incidental or punitive damages or any damages whatsoever arising out of or relating to the use or misuse of the Material copied or reproduced for the Patron. Accordingly, Patron shall indemnify and hold harmless BYU, HBLL, its successors, assigns and licensees, and the respective officers, directors, agents and employees, from and against any and all suits, demands, claims, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fee), arising out of or in any way connected with any claim that the reproduced Material infringes any intellectual property rights or other rights of any third party.

The HBLL expressly reserves the right to deny services to Patron if, in its discretion, it deems the Material submitted for reproduction to infringe third party rights.
