Descriptive Summary

Call Number:	MSS 2432
Title:	Doty-Dayton Productions records, 1956-1983
Creator:	Doty-Dayton Productions
Repository:	L. Tom Perry Special Collections
Extent:	160 cartons (225 linear ft.); 6 boxes (3 linear ft.); 5 oversized boxes (6 linear ft.); 51 film canisters (13.5 linear ft.)
Biographical History Abstract:	Lyman Dayton was born in Salt Lake City, Utah but lived mostly in Wyoming. He was an independent director, producer and writer of films. He worked mainly on family themed films during the 1970s and 1980s. He co-founded a production company with Dr. George Doty, Doty-Dayton Productions, which produced such films as Where the Red Fern Grows , Seven Alone and Against A Crooked Sky .
Scope Abstract:	The studio archives contains files on financing, production, research, story and script development, distribution, advertising, contracts, television buys, still photos from various motion pictures, and audio mix elements of Doty-Dayton Productions. Motion Pictures documented in this collection: Rivals, Where the Red Fern Grows, Seven Alone, Pony Express Rider, and Against A Crooked Sky. Also in the collection are files on unproduced projects, 35mm and 16mm prints of the above mentioned films, and trailers.
